

Call for Special Issue Proposals for World Leisure Journal

DEADLINE: 20 April 2023

The Editor-in-Chief of the World Leisure Journal (WLJ) welcome proposals from appropriately qualified colleagues wishing to express an interest in editing a special issue of the journal. We welcome proposals which address any topic which advances the knowledge in the field, but would particularly encourage proposals which address:

- Research Methodologies
- Leisure and Ethics
- Leisure and Justice
- Leisure and Sport/Physical Activity/Health
- Leisure and Artificial Intelligence
- The Future of Leisure

Colleagues wishing to propose a Special Issue should submit an outline of up to 1,000 words which summarises the key aims and proposed theme(s) to be explored, how the issue will build upon work published previously in the journal and field more widely, and topics on which papers would be sought. A short CV (no more than 2 pages) for each editor outlining their expertise, relevant publications and editorial experience should also be submitted.

Proposals should be sent by email to the WLJ EIC Professor Sandro Carnicelli sandro.carnicelli@uws.ac.uk no later than 20 April 2023

Shortlisted proposals will be considered by the Editor-in-Chief and the World Leisure Journal Editorial Board in May 2023 with outcomes communicated as soon as possible thereafter. It is anticipated that the selected special issues will be published between 2024 and 2025 by agreement with the Guest Editors.
